

Dr. Snow is a former English teacher and has taught and worked on Colorado standards and accountability reforms for the past 14 years. She has conducted research and policy work at the University of Colorado, McREL, and the Education Commission of the States. She is a current member of the Association of Colorado Educational Evaluators and the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators.

Hildegarde and the Great Green Shirt Factory was named Best Children's Book of 2004 by the Colorado Independent Publishers' Association and by Writer's Notes Magazine. It was also a 2004 Benjamin Franklin finalist for Best First Children's Book and has been nominated for a 2004 Teachers' Choice Award.

Of course, you want all your students to learn to high standards!

But you don't want them to lose their love of reading along the way.

Dr. Ravay Snow understands that. She is a former Colorado teacher and education expert who is now an award-winning picture book author and illustrator.

Ravay offers a dynamic presentation for classes that includes:

- * reading her book, Hildegarde and the Great Green Shirt Factory
- * Q & A about writing the book
- * creativity exercises that inspire students to work on their own writing!

All activities, including explicit vocabulary instruction and writing instruction, are aligned with Colorado's reading and writing standards.

Schedule Ravay at your school and see how your primary-grade students respond!
